

US History
Facilitator: Tara Blanton
tblanton@sc.rr.com

Course Description: Exploring America by Ray Notgrass is an American history high school curriculum. This course meets South Carolina's standards for one credit in U.S. History which is a required history in the state. The curriculum also provides full credits in English and Bible; however Pathways will instruct for the history portion only.

The student will survey American history from the time of the Native Americans and first European explorers to the administration of Barack Obama. The course discusses actions and developments on the national level, especially involving the Federal government, as well as issues and events in American culture. The course places special emphasis on the role of slavery and subsequent racial issues in American history. The student will read a significant number of original documents and speeches while studying the narrative of lessons, and have the opportunity to complete hands on projects for each unit of study.

Curriculum: Exploring America by Ray Notgrass Curriculum Package

Includes:

- Exploring America Part 1 and Part 2
- American Voices (a collection of original source documents)

Student Review Pack (sold separately)

Includes:

- Student Review Book
- Quiz and Exam Book
- Answer Key